

Impacts of Sickle Cell Disease in California
May 8, 2019
Agenda

- 10:15 a.m.: Participant check in
Legislative Office Building
1020 N Street, Room 100 – Sacramento, CA 95814
- 10:30 a.m.: Patricia Cooper, Executive Director, California Biotechnology Foundation
Meeting background
- 10:35 a.m.: Assemblymember Shirley Weber, Chair, California Legislative Black Caucus
Opening remarks
- 10:45 a.m.: PANEL I: Caring for patients: Current Treatment and Challenges
- Dr. Judith R. Baker, Public Health Director, Western States Regional Hemophilia Network and Policy Director, Pacific Sickle Cell Regional Collaborative (Moderator)
  - Dr. Keith Quirolo, former Director, Pediatric Sickle Cell Program, UCSF Benioff's Children's Hospital
  - Dr. Susan Claster, Hematologist, Adult Sickle Cell Clinic, Martin Luther King Jr. Outpatient Center, Faculty, UC Irvine Medical Center
- 11:00 a.m.: PANEL II: Living with Sickle Cell Disease
- Assemblymember Mike Gipson (Moderator)
  - Cassandra Trimmell, Founder, Sickle Cell 101
  - Adrienne Shapiro, Parent
  - Lance Jasper Jones, Patient
- 11:20 a.m.: Understanding Sickle Cell Disease in California
- Susan Paulukonis, Program Director, CA Rare Disease Surveillance Program, Public Healthcare Institute, UC Berkeley
- 11:35 a.m.: Game Changing Treatments on the Horizon
- Dr. Keith Quirolo, former Director, Pediatric Sickle Cell Program, UCSF Benioff's Children's Hospital
- 11:50 a.m.: Closing Remarks and Q & A
- Mary Brown, CEO, Sickle Cell Disease Foundation, California
- 12:00 p.m.: Briefing Concludes
- Box lunches provided following the briefing

Join the conversation: #CABiotech. Follow our social channels: Facebook @CaliforniaBiotech Twitter @CABiotech

